B MODULE DESIGN

For further information please refer to the UoH Quality and Standards webpages – ‘Curriculum Design’ under the ‘Programme Development and Management’ heading.

11 Module Indicative Content

Please outline the key themes and topics to be included in this module. Please consider the diversity of perspectives that are being presented (e.g. non-European, Black Asian and Minority Ethnic, LGBTQ).

This module will develop the students' understanding of essential industry skills in relation to voice practice. The module also aims to contextualise the use of the voice within a variety of cultures, art forms and vocational disciplines. Students will gain a breadth of understanding in order to provide context for their specialism and will be given the opportunity to apply harmonic and compositional knowledge to creative arranging tasks.

Students will engage in the analytical and practical study of a range of vocal arranging. This knowledge will enable students to learn from the work of others, but more importantly, develop their own voice within this field. Different approaches and methods and styles of arrangement will be considered, investigated and evaluated theoretically and practically. Digital Vocal Production skills will be developed through practical application of DAW's where students will be introduced to the recording process. These skills will aid students in the process of capturing and conveying their arrangements, as well as develop their ability to do recorded vocal work in general.

This module will further expand students' knowledge and skills relating specifically to the voice. Areas such as anatomy, acoustics, voice mechanics and vocal health will be taught and applied where relevant. Students will acquire knowledge of both historic and current voice research and practices and will explore relevant context in relation to these.

12 Rationale

Please explain the rationale for including the module in the programme, including how it fits with other modules and the overall programme.

The module is centred around the student's primary discipline, looking at multiple factors that contribute to a skill set supporting the development of a broader, industry focused set of attributes. The module also places emphasis on developing advanced skills related to the student's core study through the introduction of specialist subjects and vocational skills. This approach provides ample room for detailed technical and conceptual feedback, peer input, and broader contextualisation within voice-specific and industry relevant frameworks

13 Learning and Teaching Methods

Please outline the teaching and learning methods and the rationale for their selection, including how this fits with the overall programme approach.

Delivery will be through a series of workshops, lectures and seminars.

Workshops are used as a platform for the practical exploration and application of skills. Lectures are used for the effective delivery of key subject areas as outlined in the indicative content. Seminars will be used to promote discussion to evaluate and critically appraise the content being delivered as part of the module.

Students have 4 weekly taught sessions during trimester 1. Each session focuses on a specific set of skills and knowledge and is delivered in a subject appropriate format and setting. This allows for the facilitation of theoretic and technical knowledge, acquisition and application of skills, and the exploration of research and reflection through contextual discourse. This is an approach that is consistently applied throughout the programme.

14 Programme Competencies

Please list the levelled programme competencies which this module meets.

- Making clear to staff and students what is being assessed in the module
- Enabling staff and students to realise/recognise the constructive alignment of assessment to competence
- Competencies should be articulated at the appropriate level

PC No.	Programme Competency Statement
PC4	Demonstrate an assured level in music theory and musicianship skills and apply this to the technical and creative process of vocal arranging and recording
PC6	Apply knowledge of relevant music technologies in the areas of music and music education, and use these creatively in both music making and educational settings
PC7	Apply ethical and professional standards within the field of music performance, music education and in the wider industry
PC8	Relate music and music education to wider contexts, and to reflect historic and current debates in the relevant areas
PC9	Deploy essential aspects of the professional requirements within a career as a voice professional, in performance, skills based and vocational scenarios

15 Breakdown of Learning and Teaching Hours

Student time associated with the module	%
Guided independent study including online	80
Placement/Study abroad	0
Scheduled learning and teaching activities	20
Total	100

Type	Length	Frequency	Total
Digital Vocal Production	1 hour	10 sessions	10 hours
Advanced Voice Theory	1 hour	10 sessions	10 hours
Vocal Arranging	1 hour	10 sessions	10 hours
Voice in Context	1 hour	10 sessions	10 hours
Directed Study			160 hours
Total hours (100 hours per 10 credits)			200 hours

16 For Modules with PSRB and/or Apprenticeship Standard Requirements

Please explain how completing this module contributes towards developing the competencies required of relevant frameworks or standards. Please explain the relevance of the teaching, learning and assessment approach to developing the knowledge, skills and behaviours of an apprenticeship standard or the requirements of a PSRB.

17 Ethical Issues

Universities research and develop modules, which deal with issues that may be sensitive or involve ethical considerations. As with research, the duty of care extends to all involved in learning and teaching. Please highlight any relevant issues that relate to content, teaching methods and assessment and state how they are to be addressed (include evidence of support from relevant ethics committees and relevant risk assessments as appropriate).

	This module is designed to offer students opportunities to deploy a range of skills and contextual knowledge relevant to vocal practice and musicianship needed to successfully build a fundament upon which students can further extend their practices into the relevant professional industries. The content of this module will introduce students to diverse cultures through the exploration of the role of the human voice within these. The cultural sensitivity throughout this study will lead to students building an understanding of diverse methods and perspectives. Students will engage in discussions around the ethical responsibilities of performers, creatives, voice professionals, educators and facilitators, considering the potential impact of the work they are producing, and the methods being employed. Students are also directly engaged in discussion pertaining to research ethics and how this is embedded in their research process. Leeds Conservatoire is committed to maintaining the quality and ethical standards in our programmes when members of our academic community undertake primary research. The practice of following the conservatoire's research approvals process ensures information is gathered via ethical and respectful interactions with participants, following best research practices. All students are required to adhere to the conservatoire's Research Approvals Process.
18	What are the risks associated with this module and any plans for mitigation against these?
	As part of this module students may encounter theoretic and/or applied content where they may be subject to information that relates to physical and mental health issues. Students are given information, advice and guidance relating to all aspects of Safeguarding and Health and Safety to enable them to undertake any practical work safely. Trigger warnings will be applied where necessary, and students can also access support through our Student Support service. There may also be instances where students interact with or encounter content relating to groups or people who are considered vulnerable. Part of the study for this module will also relate to the study of cultures or events that can be triggering to some students. Appropriate trigger warnings will be applied, and Student Services have facilities available to support students for whom this may cause distress.
19	Equality and Diversity
	Higher education is covered by the Equality Act 2010, which protects individuals from discrimination on the basis of the following protected characteristics: age; disability; gender reassignment; pregnancy and maternity; race; religion or belief; sex; sexual orientation. Detail the adjustments you have considered to ensure this module anticipates the needs of students with any of these characteristics. Principles of Equality and Diversity are embedded in every aspect of this module, from the curriculum design and schemes of work, reading list, the establishing of a safe learning environment and the assessment design. The learning environments encourage students to recognise, discuss and interact with a wide spectrum of social, cultural, and political perspectives on applied and creative practices. The teaching team is mindful of the sensitivities associated with addressing these aspects, actively striving to safeguard the wellbeing of students who contribute their perspectives on these topics. All assessments include a fixed submission deadline to accommodate students with additional needs. This inclusive approach will be incorporated into the assignment deadline for every student.

C MODULE ASSESSMENT

20 Rationale for Assessment Methods Chosen Including Inclusivity

Please outline the rationale for the formative and summative assessment methods chosen. What steps have been taken to ensure assessment is inclusive e.g. alignment of formative and summative assessment and scaffolding of assessment tasks), and how this fits with the overall programme approach.

Students will submit a portfolio that showcases both theoretical knowledge and the application of theory through practical skills and reflective practice. The portfolio allows for the consolidation of knowledge across the strands of the module, and for students to demonstrate process as well as outcomes in ways that reflect the industry.

 Within each portfolio there is some flexibility to the format of the tasks submitted by students, which makes the assessment more inclusive.

21 Assessment Model for this Module (Formative and Summative)

	Programme Competencies Addressed	Summative Assessment Type and Title (where relevant)	%	Formative Assessment that aligns to the Summative
SA1	PC4, PC6, PC7, PC8, PC9	Arranging Portfolio 15 minutes of recorded arrangements 1000 words	100%	Tutor and peer feedback will be ongoing throughout the trimester

22 Module Resubmission or Reassessment

Resubmission of the original assessment is the standard approach. Please ensure that the resubmission is feasible. If the original assessment is an examination or requires wider input, e.g. group assessment, lab work, peer participation, then reassessment may be required.

Where reassessment is required instead of resubmission, please provide a rationale below, and complete the box below.

	Programme Competencies addressed	%	Assessment Type and Title (where relevant)
SA1	PC4, PC6, PC7, PC8, PC9	100%	Arranging Portfolio 15 minutes of recorded arrangements 1000 words

D MODULE RESOURCES

23 Reading List

Items included on reading lists can be of any format, e.g. books, articles, videos, websites etc.
